

System Mapping - Stakeholder Analysis

Adani's Carmichael Mine

IMAN HOSSEINI AUG 24, 2022 12:53PM UTC

Group 5

1. Stakeholders :

People: Miners(job being offered to them), Residents: living nearby(Schools, economy and enviroment impact)

Customer: Who is buying the coal: India(being offered the resourses), Other companies which needed the resources as well.(Paying)

Australia government(Governers like the natural resources minister ,Tax income, govern issues...etc)

Company: Direct economic effects

Environment Protection Organization

Competitor: Other mining companies

2. Influence:(High to low)

S: Government/

A: Environment Protection Organization/Company

B: People/

C: Competitor/Customer

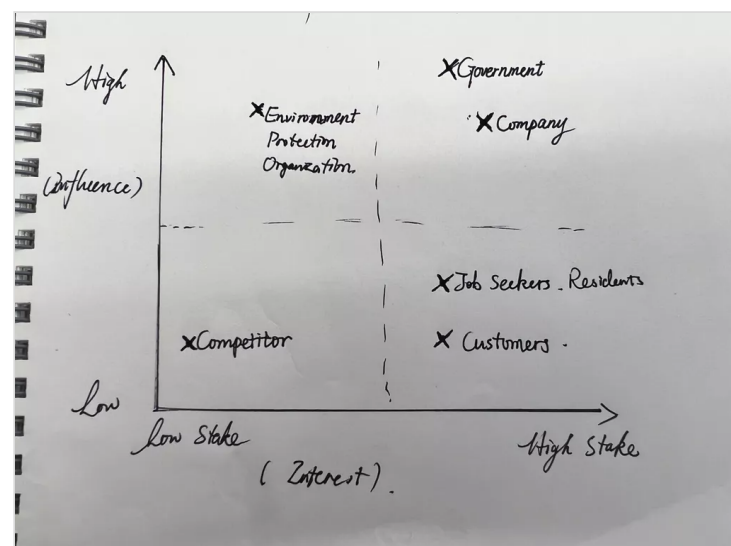

3. Interest:(High to low)

S: Company/ Government

A: Customer/ People

B: Environment Protection Organization

C: Competitor

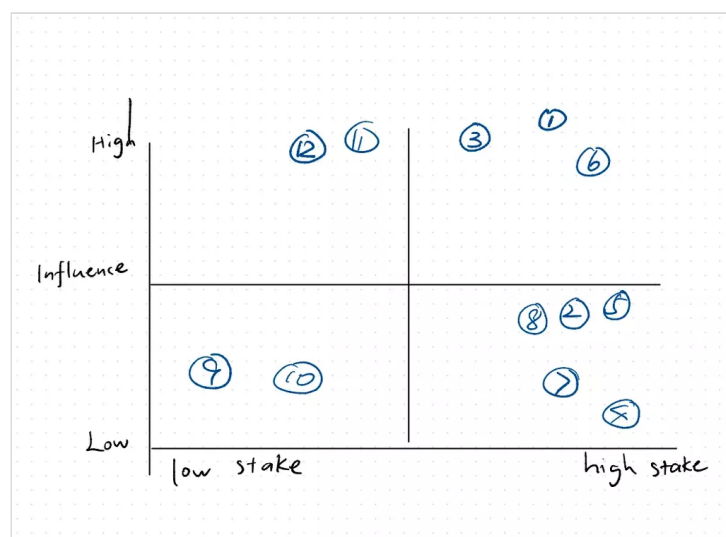

3. Federal Government - Approved the project, depending on who's in power. More focussed on where the mining will continue, wants to transform Australia to green energy.
4. Indian people in rural areas
5. Local residents around the mine and the state
6. Adani Group
7. Environmental Groups - They will protest the operations.
8. Indigenous Communities (Wangan and Jagalingou traditional owners)
9. UNESCO - Great barrier reef is a world heritage site. They have a long-term sustainability plan for its protection.
10. Mining equipment manufacturers - They directly benefit from increased mining in the region.
11. Media
12. Indian GOV

2. Rank their influence

1 -> 6 -> 11 -> 3 -> 4 -> 2 -> 9 -> 7 -> 5 -> 12 -> 8 -> 10

3. Rank their interest.

9 -> 10 -> 12 -> 11 -> 3 -> 8 -> 1 -> 2 -> 7 -> 6 -> 5 -> 4

Group 2

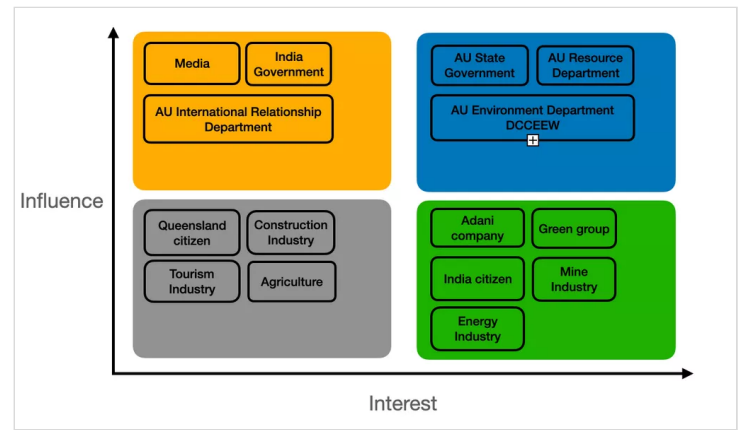

1. Identify stakeholders in the Adani's Carmichael Mine

1. Queensland Government - Increasing the revenue.
2. Local Council - Will support mining, as it will create more jobs, and attract more people to the regional area. Don't have much say in the final decision.

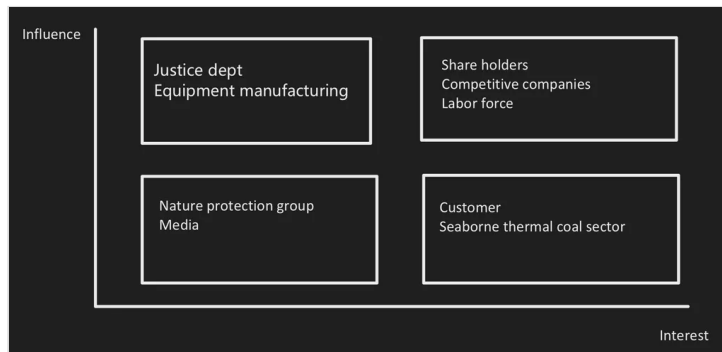

Group 6

Group 1

Group 3

Hints

1. People and environment who are affected by the operation.
2. People/organizations who are likely to influence the operation.
3. People/organizations which have legal, financial or operational responsibilities about the operation.

Stakeholder Analysis

1. Identify stakeholders in the Adani's Carmichael Mine
2. Rank their influence.
3. Rank their interest.
4. Create the rainbow diagram.

Group 4

Stakeholders

1. Energy company in China
2. Mining company
3. Government (Queensland)
4. India people
5. Green group
6. Residents around the mining site
7. Taxpayer
8. Investment bank

